Cavalier

1965

Dear Mr. Bricker,

Words cannot express our deep appreciation for the help and advice you have given us during our four years at C.H.S. Not only in our class projects, but in our individual problems, you have taken an interest and offered wise counsel. It is in an effort to thank you for all you have done that we dedicate our yearbook to you, Mr. Bricker.

Prologue

Our curtain is going up!

After four years of being understudies to last year's graduating class, we've come right up to the footlights ourselves. Turn around. Look back. Remember the years we've spent waiting in the wings? Remember:

short, frantic lunch hours ("Line Jumpers!") . . . . . freshman initiation ("greenies") . . . . .jars of pickled worms in Biology . . . . . The Rise and Fall (and rise and fall) of the Junior Prom ceiling . . . . . "The Man Who Came to Dinner" . . . . . "O Men, A Men" . . . . . Pep Sessions . . . . . when Mr. Endsley became a cheerleader . . . . . the gym suits that walk home by themselves . . . . . "Here, now!!" . . . . . tearing your hair out at Crewstiew games . . . . .Senior Girls Homeroom ("Ladies, would you please be quiet?" . . . . .Mrs. Steffan's philosophy of women . . . . . "Can I use your Latin translation next period?". . . . ."duck for the oyster, duck, duck, duck!". . . . ."That'll be twenty-five demerits!" . . . . . "Unless you want to blow off this wing of the building you'd better be carefull with that hydrogen generator" . . . . . ("For heavens sake, don't shake it!") . . . . . "Let's turn on the showers and at least get the floor wet1' . . . . . remember?

We've reached the footlights now. So, with our Senior Prom and graduation bringing down the curtain, we pack up----and move on to another show, in another place, for another opening.

This is the '63 Cavalier Staff, who for the last ten months has spent study halls, afternoons, evenings, and holidays in putting this yearbook together for you. We present it to you, the graduating Class of 1963, so that you might always remember these wonderful times. We have captured moods, expressions, pranks and thoughts becoming reality. There are moments not pictured and moods not quite expressed but you will remember them. This is a sampling of our growing, working, playing, maturing, and living. We are different people for our education, but only because of our educators. It is for this reason that we spent months upon months preparing this book - that we may always look back and say this is how it was, this is
